School Handbook Tuition Delinquency Policy

School families whose tuition payments are delinquent & have not made suitable arrangements with the Pastor will be informed that their child(ren) will not be re-admitted to school. Tuition of families paying annually is due July 27th. Tuition of families paying semi-annually is due July 27th & November 26th. Schedule for non-admittance when tuition is delinquent:

- The First Day of School--Child(ren) will not be admitted to school unless the July and August payments have been made.
- November 1st – Child(ren) will not be admitted to school unless the September and October payments have been made.
- January 1st – Child(ren) will not be admitted to school unless the November and December payments have been made.
- March 1st – (Child(ren) will not be admitted to school unless the January and February payments have been made.

Registration materials for the following year will not be accepted for families with delinquent accounts. Registrations will be accepted after accounts become current provided there are still openings in the grades for which these families are registering their children.

High School Applications--School records required as part of the high school application process will not be submitted unless tuition is current at the time of the request.

End of School--Child(ren) will not be permitted to participate in graduation nor receive any report card nor transfer of records unless payment has been made in full.

Financial Support Policy

School parents must show an active presence in St. Joseph Parish: attendance of Mass on Sunday, regular financial support of the parish, & involvement in one or more parish activities. Parents who choose not to support financially the parish will have to pay the non-parishioner rate of tuition, which is the actual cost of tuition per child.
